— G O L F T R A V E L —

OFFICIAL GOLF TRAVEL PARTNER/ SECTION SPONSOR

FAIRWAYS TO HEAVEN

— G O L F T R A V E L-

Dear PGA Professional.

Fairways to Heaven Golf Travel is excited to be the official golf travel partner of the Gateway, Southwest, and Illinois PGA through 2022. We would like to take this opportunity to share a little about our company, the services we provide, and how you as a PGA Professional can benefit from working with Fairways to Heaven Golf Travel.

Golf travel is not a job for our team, it is truly a passion. Over the past 20 years, we have stayed and played at the very destinations we offer to our clients which allows us to provide true, first-hand experience when planning a trip for our clients.

As partners with a PGA Professional, we ensure the process of planning and executing a custom golf trip is easy and lightweight for you. We understand your busy schedules and provide the tools and guidance to easily plan and register members for each trip.

We work with you to understand you and your members' needs when we create our golf experiences rather than sell an "off the shelf" golf trip. Our motto is "we don't sell golf trips we create golf experiences.". We assist in all aspects of the trip from dinner reservations, spa requests, off-course activities, and anything in between.

Following, you will see some great information about the destinations we offer as well as some personal recommendations from us based on the many journeys we have been fortunate to take.

Our goal is to not only plan that ultimate golf getaway but to build a personal relationship with all our clients. We are fortunate that we now call many of our client's friends, and we see them return year after year.

Take a look inside and see what we have to offer! We would welcome the chance to earn your business and provide you lifetime memories with family and friends.

Cheers!

David Reid & Michael O'Toole Managing Partners

2021 PGA PRO PARTNER PROGRAM

Fairways to Heaven Golf Travel has developed a partnership program that delivers real value to the PGA Professional that includes a significant income opportunity as well as marketing support to assist in communicating travel opportunities to your members.

INCOME OPPORTUNITY

Whether you travel with your members or not, our program allows the golf professional to take advantage of this significant income opportunity. With a 5% commission on the total value of ALL trips booked by your members in a calendar year, the following table provides multiple examples of what you can potentially earn.

Total Value of All Trips	Commission to Pro
$25,000 (approx. 4 golfers)	$1,250
$50,000 (approx. 12 golfers)	$2,500
$75,000 (approx. 18 golfers)	$3,750
$100,000 (approx. 25 golfers)	$5,000
$125,000 (approx. 30 golfers)	$6,750

Traveling with your members? Your trip if FREE! (value of $3000+)

MARKETING & PLANNING SUPPORT

Fairways to Heaven Golf Travel understands the PGA Professional wears many hats and your time is very limited and valuable. Should you decide to plan a trip for your members, our team will provide detailed support in deciding on the location and itinerary as well as providing marketing support in creating proper messaging to the members. Have members who are interested in taking their own trip? Just refer them to us and we take care of the rest and you get paid once they travel!

The vast majority of golf members at country clubs travel to play golf throughout the year. Here is your opportunity to take advantage of that and provide a value-added service to your members, while you could benefit from our generous commission program.

SUZY WHALEY

"Golf travel is a great career building opportunity for PGA Professionals. What better way to spend time with your customers than while playing a bucket list course, or enjoying a meal after a memorable day on the links?"

FORMER PRESIDENT, PGA OF AMERICA

EMAIL: INFO@F2HGOLF.COM

The Fairways to Heaven Golf Travel team has been fortunate enough to play golf all across this fantastic island. In fact, Mike spent a whole summer there a while back playing 53 rounds in 60 days! Aside from the incredible, championship links dotted along the coastline, a golf experience in Ireland takes you well beyond the boundaries of the course. You are made to feel like one of their own as the legendary Irish hospitality is very genuine. A dark and creamy pint of Guinness, fiddles and bodhrans, and great "craic" make a visit to Ireland truly special.

From the moment I finished my first round of links golf in 2001 I was hooked. It was a hidden gem called Ceann Sibeal, or Dingle Golf Links just west of Dingle town. Who knew it would lead me to where I am today". - Mike O'Toole

SCOTLAND

Scotland and golf go hand in hand. Known as the Home of Golf, a pilgrimage to this sacred golfing land is a must for any golfer. History oozes from the fairways and clubhouses across this small but stunning country. The iconic links of the Old Course draw golfers like moths to a flame but once they arrive, they realize there is so much more at their fingertips. It seems you only need to go a couple of miles before you stumble upon another links course when exploring the coastline of Scotland. Scotch whisky is a treat not to be missed with as many distilleries as there are golf courses. History of course runs deep and rich in Scotland and there are tales

England for years has consistently flown under the radar beneath its neighbors to the north and west. But no longer, in recent years as the secret has gotten out that England offers some of the finest golf experiences anywhere in the world. With 4 current Open Championship venues (as many as Scotland) and a laundry list of courses in the top 100 in the world, England is a must-visit. Off the course, England abounds with things to see and do. London's offerings are endless and Liverpool along the Mersey has undergone a renaissance of sorts and is positioned a short drive to many of the finest courses in England. Dave spent 4 years living in London and has had the opportunity to touch and taste so much of what this destination has to offer.
